

Kingston University London

Finance & Development Workshop organised by the Political Economy Research Group 4 June 2015

- 9:45-10:00 Registration
- 10:00-11:30 Session 1: The Future of the Global Financial System
Steve Keen (Kingston University): Finance in Advanced Economies: What not to Learn?
Gary Dymski (Leeds University Business School): Does Global Economic Prosperity Require Global Financial Governance? Financial Markets as Global Public Goods
- 11:30-11:45 Coffee break
- 11:45-13:15 Session 2: International Capital Flows and Development
Devrim Yilmaz (Kingston University): Sudden Stops in Capital Flows to Emerging Economies
Bruno Bonizzi (SOAS): Institutional Investors Allocation to Emerging Markets: A Panel Approach to Asset Demand
- 13:15-14:30 Lunch break
- 14:30-16:00 Session 3: Financing Structural Transformation
Luiz Vieira (Bretton Woods Project): Challenging 'Financial Inclusion'
Ewa Karwowski (Kingston University): Assessing Evidence on Financial Deepening and Structural Transformation in Sub-Saharan Africa
- 16:00-16:15 Coffee break
- 16:30-18:00 Session 4: Policy Perspectives on Finance and Development
Gideon Rabinowitz (ODI): Dilemmas for Allocating International Public Finance in a Post-2015 Era?
Tomas Marois (SOAS): Public Banks as (Policy) Catalysers of Social Development
Engelbert Stockhammer (Kingston University): Determinants of Income Distribution in Advanced and Developing Economies and their Policy Implications

Important information

Please register for the workshop on Eventbrite. The registration is free of charge but mandatory.

All workshop sessions will take place in PRJG3002, which is on the Penrhyn Road Campus (KT1 2EE). Please find a Google map link here.

The workshop is organised by the Political Economy Research Groups (GERP) at Kingston University. For future events and our activities please see:

<http://fass.kingston.ac.uk/research/perg>

and

<https://www.facebook.com/PERGKingston>.

Kingston University offers a range of MA courses in economics and political economy that incorporate a pluralist approach to economic teaching. Please visit the webpages below for further information:

MA Political Economy

<http://www.kingston.ac.uk/postgraduate-course/political-economy-ma/>

MA Economics (Political Economy)

<http://www.kingston.ac.uk/postgraduate-course/economics-political-economy-ma/>

MA International Politics and Economics

<http://www.kingston.ac.uk/postgraduate-course/international-politics-economics-ma/>

MA Philosophy and Political Economy

<http://www.kingston.ac.uk/postgraduate-course/philosophy-political-economy-ma/>

How to get here

Public transport

Trains run regularly from London Waterloo to Kingston station (midweek 4 trains per hour, journey times 28-33 minutes) or Surbiton station (midweek 10 trains per hour, journey times 15-32 minutes). For further information, visit the National Rail Enquiries website.

Buses run both locally and from other parts of London. For further information, visit the Transport for London website. We also run a free intersite bus service for students, staff and visitors.

From Kingston station

- Leave the railway station via the main exit
- Cross at the lights in front of you on to Fife Road
- Turn left on to Castle Street
- At the end of Castle Street continue ahead on to Eden Street
- Cross the mini-roundabout to Brook Street
- Cross over at the lights and head right towards the roundabout
- Go straight over the roundabout on to Penrhyn Road
- Penrhyn Road campus is on your left opposite Surrey County Hall

From Surbiton station

- Leave the railway station via the main exit
- Cross the mini-roundabout to Claremont Road
- Take the 71, 281, K2 or K3 bus towards Kingston
- Get off at the 'Kingston University' stop
- The Penrhyn Road campus is on the other side of the road

Driving

Please note that all visitors to Kingston University must pre-book car parking through the person they are visiting. Parking enforcement measures are in operation at all sites so all visitors must display a visitor permit, which are available from campus receptions. Please note that parking control notices (PCNs) will be issued for any vehicles not displaying a valid permit during the stated times or where a vehicle is parked in breach of the on-site instructions. Vehicles are parked at the user's own risk and the University accepts no responsibility for loss or damage to any personal property brought onto our sites.

Parking is limited in the town centre sites and so you may have to use one of the public pay-and-display car parks nearby. For further information, visit the Kingston Council website.

Cycling

There is a network of cycle routes adjacent to most university sites. Cycle parking facilities are available on all sites, including halls of residence. For further information, visit the Cycle Kingston website.