Background Information

The 11th Stirling Centre for Economic Methodology Seminar is held at the University of Stirling on Saturday 20th September. You will find the location of the venue on the campus, as well as travel information, at:
http://www.external.stir.ac.uk/visitor_info/about/getting_here/index.php

Workshop Programme

For those arriving the evening before, dinner has been arranged at a local restaurant, Corrieri’s, at 19.00. To get there, turn left at the campus entrance (leaving the campus) and it is on the left just beyond the second roundabout; alternatively, coming from Stirling, Corrieri’s is on the right at the roundabout at the far end of Causewayhead Road (on the route to the University). A map can be found at http://www.bizwiki.co.uk/cafes/191234/corrieris.htm

The official workshop programme starts around 9:15am on the 20th and will finish around 5pm. Morning and afternoon tea, as well as lunch, are covered by the fee. After the workshop, the proceedings will move to the Stirling Management Centre (http://www.smc.stir.ac.uk/content/) bar, followed by dinner there.

The workshop (plus accommodation and dinner) fee should be paid via cheque drawn on a UK Bank, or by credit card, sent to SCEME together with the booking form by Friday 5 September. Details of the fees will be available on the Registration Form, available on the SCEME website. Places are limited and bookings (for anybody not scheduled as a lead discussant or co-discussant) will be confirmed on a first-come first-served basis.

Accommodation

Some rooms have been pre-booked for this event at the Stirling Management Centre on campus, http://www.smc.stir.ac.uk/content/, at a rate of £66 per night B&B. We can only hold the rooms until 8 August, and cannot guarantee availability after that, so please book early.

The following hotels are the closest to the campus:

Royal Hotel (0.9 mile from campus): rooms from £70 B&B. Tel: +44(0)1786-832284; Fax: +44(0)1786-834377; website http://www.royal-stirling.co.uk/

Queens Hotel (1 mile from campus): rooms from £100 B&B. Tel: +44(0)1786 833268 fax: +44(0)1786 831335; website http://www.queenshotelscotland.com/

You can access other hotels directly through such sites as the Scottish Tourist Board site, www.visitscotland.com, and the Stirling city website, www.stirling.co.uk.
For more modestly priced B&B accommodation, there are several possibilities close to the University (particularly along Causewayhead Road). You can contact Visit Scotland by phone, on +44 (0)845-225-5121; we suggest you mention that you would like somewhere close to the University.

Travel

Road: The University is most easily reached by taking exit number 11 from the M9, following the signs to Bridge of Allan and turning left into the campus at the far end of the village (the entrance is signed).

Train: The University can be reached by bus or taxi from Stirling railway station. The rail timetable can be accessed at www.railtimetable.co.uk/. Stirling is one hour by train from Edinburgh or Glasgow. There is a regular (and frequent) bus service between the station and Stirling Campus.

Air: The nearest airports are Edinburgh and Glasgow (Abbotsinch); Glasgow (Prestwick) is further away. There are several low-cost operators, including Easyjet (www.easyjet.com), Flybe (www.flybe.com) and Ryanair (www.ryanair.co.uk) which fly into these airports, as well as British Airways and British Midland, and some international carriers. Travel to Stirling then involves an airport bus into the city (or train from Prestwick) and then train (http://www.nationalrail.co.uk/ see also http://www.cs.stir.ac.uk/~kjt/general/travel.html). It is much quicker to take a taxi from the airport, but the cost is over £50 per trip. If you are interested in sharing a taxi, please let us know your flight details and we will try to put you together with others arriving around the same time.

Please consult www.home.stir.ac.uk/visitors.htm for further details about the campus, including relevant maps.
