

Economists CAN have fun on a Saturday Night!

Dear Colleagues,

Do you have anything planned for your Saturday evening during the Southern Economic Association meetings? No? Join AIRLEAP for a party!

Who are we?

We are "AIRLEAP" - the International Association, based here in Washington D.C., for Integrity and Responsible Leadership in Economics and Associated Professions."

We are a charitable, educational, nonprofit organization, whose Board Members include, Professors Deirdre McCloskey, George DeMartino, Thomas Mayer, Gary Hoover, and many others. We are endorsed by notable economists such as David Colander.

Our mission is to improve our profession in a peaceful and amicable manner.

Though we are a diverse group of economists with different backgrounds, we have great meetings where we freely chat, discuss, and engage in enjoyable arguments.

And, as we like to say, Whatever is SAID in AIRLEAP, STAYS in the AIRLEAP!

Join us for HAPPY HOUR at 7:00 PM and/or our DINNER PARTY at 8:00 PM

On November 22, 2008

At the HARD ROCK CAFÉ- 999 E Street, N.W., Washington, DC
(on 10th and E Street NW, just South of the SEA Conference).

Let us know you're coming by emailing us at deepthi@airleap.org.

If you're not sure, don't worry about it and just show up during the happy hour, and if you want to stick around for dinner, we'll try to get you a seat. And remember to please bring enough cash to cover your meal, drinks, and tips.

Cheers!

Deepthi
