

Privatisation against the European Social Model

A Critique of European Policies and Proposals for Alternatives

Edited by Marica Frangakis,
Christoph Hermann, Jörg Hufschmid and Károly Lóránt

This book addresses the EU as powerful driver of the wave of privatisations in the network industries and public services since the early 1990s. Based on theoretical arguments and empirical studies it examines the impact of these policies on what is regarded as the normative pillars of the European Social Model.

MARICA FRANGAKIS is an economist, with a special interest in European affairs. She is a member of the Board of the 'Nicos Poulantzas Institute', a non-profit making institution, promoting public debate in a variety of areas. She is also involved with the ATTAC network, while she is an active member of the European Economists for an Alternative Economic Policy in Europe (EuroMemorandum Group).

CHRISTOPH HERMANN is Senior researcher at the Working Life Research Centre (FORBA) in Vienna and co-coordinator of the EC funded research project 'Privatization of Public Services and the Impact on Quality, Employment and Productivity'.

JÖRG HUFFSCHMID was professor for political economy and economic policy at the University of Bremen in Germany. His research and publication areas are European integration and financial markets. He has been the scientific coordinator of various EU-wide projects and was founder of the EuroMemorandum Group.

KAROLY LORANT spent most of his professional life in the Hungarian National Planning Office, where he dealt with long range forecasts. After the systemic change in Hungary he became a senior economist of the economic research institute named ECOSTAT. Over the past years he has been working as an expert for the European Parliament.
