Historical, Philosophical and Heterodox Perspectives in Economics Journals

Dear Reader,

Welcome to the 2007 Routledge Historical, Philosophical and Heterodox Perspectives in Economics Journals brochure. This is the first year we have decided to produce a cluster brochure to encompass our titles under this subject area. The brochure includes journals that we publish within this subject area as well as a few books of related interest.

Exciting new developments within the area this year include The European Journal of the History of Economic Thought being accepted in to the ISI Social Sciences Citation Index and The Feminist Economics Impact Factor increasing to 1.167 with a ranking of 35/175 in the economics category in the 2005 Journal Citation Reports.

We hope that you find the new brochure useful.

Regards,

Nicola McArthur

Economy and Society

Managing Editor: Grahame Thompson, Open University, UK

Volume 36, 2007, 4 issues per year
Print ISSN 0308-5147 Online ISSN 1469-5766

This radical interdisciplinary journal of theory and politics continues to be one of the most exciting and influential resources for scholars in the social sciences worldwide. For over 30 years, the journal has explored the social sciences in the broadest interdisciplinary sense. In regular issues, and through issues devoted to special themes, Economy and Society covers questions ranging from economic governance to developments in the life sciences and beyond, and publishes major new work on current issues confronting progressive politics throughout Europe, North America, Australasia and the Pacific Rim.

The European Journal of the History of Economic Thought

Editors: José Luís Cardoso, Universidade Técnica de Lisboa, Portugal
Gilbert Faccarello, Université Panthéon-Assas, France
Heinz D. Kurz, Karl Franzens-Universität, Austria
Antoin E. Murphy, Trinity College, Ireland

Volume 14, 2007, 4 issues per year
Print ISSN 0967-2567 Online ISSN 1469-5936

The European Journal of the History of Economic Thought (EJHET), a peer-reviewed journal, has quickly established itself as a leading forum for lively discussion on a wide range of issues in the history of economic thought. With contributions from both established international scholars and younger academics, EJHET is entirely pluralist and non-partisan with regard to subjects and methodologies – it does not subscribe to any particular current of thought, nor relate to any one geographic zone.

Feminist Economics

The Journal of the International Association for Feminist Economics (IAFFE)

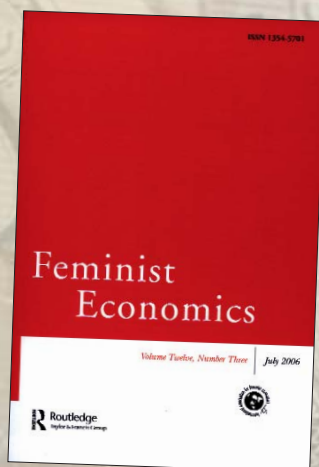

Editor: Diana Strassmann, Rice University, USA

Volume 13, 2007, 4 issues per year
Print ISSN 1354-5701 Online ISSN 1466-4372

Feminist Economics is a peer-reviewed journal that provides an open forum for dialogue and debate about feminist economic perspectives. By opening new areas of economic inquiry, welcoming diverse voices, and encouraging critical exchanges, the journal enlarges and enriches economic discourse. The goal of Feminist Economics is not just to develop more illuminating theories, but to improve the conditions of living for all children, women, and men.

International Review of Applied Economics

Editor: Malcolm Sawyer, University of Leeds, UK

Volume 21, 2007, 5 issues per year
Print ISSN 0269-2171 Online ISSN 1465-3486

International Review of Applied Economics is devoted to the practical applications of economic ideas. Applied economics is widely interpreted to embrace empirical work and the application of economics to the evaluation and development of economic policies. The interaction between empirical work and economic policy is an important feature of the journal. Although the International Review of Applied Economics associates itself broadly with the non-neo-classical tradition, it does not identify itself with any specific theoretical or political position.

The Journal of Economic Methodology

The Journal of the International Network for Economic Method (INEM)

Editors: D. Wade Hands, University of Puget Sound, USA
John B. Davis, University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands and
Marquette University, USA

Volume 14, 2007, 4 issues per year
Print ISSN 1350-178X Online ISSN 1469-9427

The Journal of Economic Methodology is a valuable forum which publishes the most current and exciting work in the broad field of economic methodology.

The Journal of Economic Methodology addresses issues such as:

- Methodological analysis of the theory and practice of contemporary economics
- Analysis of the methodological implications of new developments in economic theory and practice
- The methodological writings and practice of earlier economic theorists (mainstream or heterodox)
- Research in the philosophical foundations of economics
- Studies in the rhetoric, sociology, or economics of economics

Peer-reviewed articles form the core of the journal. It also features mini-symposia on controversial issues. The Book Review section offers substantial reviews of key titles, and a Notes and Information section will enable the subscriber to stay up to date and fully informed of international events and developments in the field.

For further information on INEM please visit: www.econmethodology.org

Journal of the History of Economic Thought

The Journal of the History of Economics Society (HES)

Editor: Steven G. Medema, University of Colorado at Denver, USA

Volume 29, 2007, 4 issues per year
Print ISSN 1042-7716 Online ISSN 1469-9656

The Journal of the History of Economic Thought (JHET) is the Journal of the History of Economics Society. JHET is a quarterly, refereed journal and welcomes papers that reflect the full spectrum of scholarly analysis within the history of economic thought. The Journal also features a regular Book Review section, which includes reviews by leading specialists.

Rethinking Marxism

Editor: David F. Ruccio, University of Notre Dame, USA

Volume 19, 2007, 4 issues per year
Print ISSN: 0893-5696 Online ISSN: 1475-8059

The aim of RETHINKING MARXISM is to stimulate interest in and debate over the explanatory power and social consequences of Marxian economic, cultural, and social analysis. To that end, we publish studies that seek to discuss, elaborate, and/or extend Marxian theory. Our concerns include theoretical and philosophical (methodological and epistemological) matters as well as more concrete empirical analyses – all work that leads to the further development of distinctively Marxian discourses. We encourage contributions from people in many disciplines and from a wide range of perspectives. We are also interested in expanding the diversity of styles for producing and presenting Marxian discourses.

Review of Political Economy

Editors: Gary Mongiovi, St John's University, USA
Steve Pressman, Monmouth University, USA

Volume 19, 2007, 4 issues per year
Print ISSN 0953-8259 Online ISSN 1465-3982

The Review of Political Economy is a peer-reviewed journal welcoming constructive and critical contributions in all areas of political economy, including the Post Keynesian, Sraffian, Marxian, Austrian and Institutionalist traditions. The Review publishes both theoretical and empirical research, and is also open to submissions in methodology, economic history and the history of economic thought that cast light on issues of contemporary relevance in political economy. Comments on articles published in the Review are encouraged.

Review of Social Economy

The Journal of the Association for Social Economics (ASE)

Editors: Wilfred Dolfsma, Corresponding Editor, Utrecht School of Economics and Maastricht University, The Netherlands
Deborah M. Figart, The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey, USA
Robert McMaster, University of Aberdeen, UK
Martha Starr, American University, Washington DC, USA

Volume 65, 2007, 4 issues per year
Print ISSN 0034-6764 Online ISSN 1470-1162

For over sixty years the Review of Social Economy has published high quality peer-reviewed papers on the many relationships between social values and economics. Among the subjects addressed are income distribution, justice and equity, poverty, cooperation, human dignity, labour, workplace organization, gender, need, the environment, economic institutions, economics methodology and class.
